

We're doing it again! Do it with us! Come swing and drink at Specs Twelve Adler Museum Cafe

Sunday Evening, 7-9 pm, July 13th

Stomp your feet to jazz in North Beach's hippest dive!

Valeriana and Dan

Did you miss us last time? Don't do that again!

We have such fun -- hootin' and hollerin'
and singing along with the jazz and Latin tunes we love!

Sunday, July 13th, 2014

7:00-9:00 pm

So it will be another Sunday evening at North Beach's hippest dive. (They call it Chinatown but we know better.)

Just south of the intersection of Broadway and Columbus, up a tiny alley next to pricey Tosca and across from jam-packed Vesuvio and Ferlinghetti's renowned City Lights bookstore nestles Specs. It was once rated Best North Beach Bar by SF Weekly and called "the quintessential San Francisco hangout."

Friendly, cozy, eclectic collection of memorabilia, great bartender, no annoying TV, and live foot-stompin' music.